

Dear Children,

- Holidays are synonymous with fun, frolic, getting up late in the morning, playing for longer hours with friends, going for picnics, exploring new places and watching fun filled shows on television. But, remember children it is also the time of the year again when you can do things which we are unable to do during the regular routine day. You can do a lot more to make your vacation more interesting, meaning full and full of fun along with doing all your heart desires. So, find attached herewith some itsy-bitsy holiday homework for you. Please do the holiday homework in a separate notebook.

Try to find some time to

- Read books! May be fables, fairy tales, encyclopedia or comic books. Explore the imaginative world and go on a fantasy tour.
- Run, exercise, sweat! Channelize your energy, build team spirit and enjoy playing challenging sports and games.
- Enhance your communication skills by conversing with your friends and family in English.
- Explore the culture and heritage of India and Kenya by visiting heritage sites like monuments and peep into the rich history.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS
